About the Conference

The Zealous Advocacy Conference, now in its seventeenth year, is an annual training seminar organized by the Center for Children, Law & Policy and the Southwest Juvenile Defender Center. The conference is the premier professional development training for juvenile defense attorneys practicing in the Southwestern United States. This year's conference will again present methods of advocacy through the Juvenile Training Immersion Program (JTIP) to assist attorneys in becoming better advocates.

CLE Hours (pending)

Attendees will receive 15 hours of CLE credit with 3 ethics hours. We will also be applying for specialization credit in criminal law, family law and juvenile law.

Registration

Early registration will be $30. After July 7, 2019 registration will be $250.00. Breakfast, lunch and parking is included with registration.

Law students from UHLC may register for free with prior permission.

Conference Hotel

The most convenient hotel for out-of-town attendees is the University of Houston Hilton Hotel located on the UH campus.
