

Center for Children, Law & Policy and the University of Houston Law Center & Southwest Juvenile Defender Center present

18TH ANNUAL ZEALOUS ADVOCACY CONFERENCE

Friday , July 19 & Saturday July 20, 2019 | 8:30 a.m.— 5:00 p.m.

University of Houston Law Center

The Zealous Advocacy Conference, now in its eighteenth year, is an annual training seminar organized by the Center for Children, Law & Policy and the Southwest Juvenile Defender Center. The conference is the premier professional development training for juvenile defense attorneys practicing in the Southwestern United States. This year's conference will present methods of advocacy through the Juvenile Training Immersion Program (JTIP) to assist attorneys in becoming better advocates.

TOPICS:

Adolescent Development

Challenging Transfer

Challenging Juvenile Statements

Guilty Pleas

Challenging Juvenile Sex Cases

Raising Race in Your Case

Three hours of ethics in Juvenile Defense

SPEAKERS:

Stacie Colling

Alternative Defense Office
Denver, Colorado

Tracy Good

Juvenile Defense Attorney
Harris County

Kameron Johnson

Travis County Juvenile
Public Defender Office

Ellen Marrus

Royce Till Professor of Law
UHLC

Chris Phillis

Director, Public Defense Services
Maricopa County, AZ

Amanda Powell

Juvenile Defense Consultant,
NJDC

<http://law.uh.edu/center4clp/>